STAMP & INZ/ Neuer Zirkus Hamburg Conference
Saturday, 2nd June 10am-4pm
Altonaer Museum, Hamburg

From 1st to 3rd of June 2018 the Hamburg-Altona STAMP Festival is happening for the eighth time.

Within this frame we (STAMP Festival in cooperation with the Initiative Neuer Zirkus/ New Circus Hamburg) would like to invite you to our conference in the Gallionsfigurensaal of the Altonaer Museum on Saturday, 2nd June 2018.

The STAMP conference was brought to life in 2017, in order to create a platform to discuss and grapple with current questions in the areas of Art and Theatre in public spaces. Our longtime goal is to create a yearly communication platform to exchange ideas, as well as to create recognition for the artistic genres (Urban Art, Art and Theatre in the public space, New Circus) in the public consciousness.

The INZ/ Neuer Zirkus Hamburg is a networking and information platform for all professional areas of contemporary theatre, moreover being a central contact toward political, research and media institutions. It organises nation wide laboratories, conferences and network-meetings with and for the circus scene.

Within this framework the STAMP & INZ/New Circus Hamburg conference we will present the ‚Manifest for contemporary circus‘. In speeches, discussion forums and workshops, the situation around contemporary circus in Germany (especially in an international comparison) will be reflected upon. Our focus will be around support structures, the condition of productions, the studies of circus art and their political recognition.

Please let us know if you can attend the conference by 30th April 2018. (conference@stamp-festival.de)

Yours Sincerely,

Tom Lanzki and Andree Wenzel
