PARTNERS & CO-ORGANISERS

CIRCOSTRADA

Circostrada is the European Network for contemporary circus and outdoor arts. Created in 2003 with the core mission of furthering the development, empowerment and recognition of these fields at European and international levels, over the years the network has become an important anchoring point for its members and a key interlocutor in the dialogue with cultural policy makers across Europe.

In a few words, Circostrada is:

- A community of contemporary circus and outdoor arts professionals linked together by common values and aspirations, who advocate for greater recognition and more structured cultural policies.
- The voice and reference network of contemporary circus and outdoor arts in Europe.
- A group of passionate and committed individuals who meet several times a year at the network's events.
- A network dedicated to its members, engaged in facilitating the exchange of experiences, knowledge, and good practices at European and international levels.
- A digital resource platform that provides thematic publications, observation tools and news on contemporary circus and outdoor arts, available to all free of charge in English and French.

ARTCENA

ARTCENA is the National Centre for Circus, Street Arts and Theatre. Created by the French Ministry of Culture, ARTCENA is a national rallying point that aims to strengthen the foundation and growth of circus, street and theatre arts. Keeping an open attitude and lively outlook, it works closely with sector professionals while also addressing the needs of teachers, students and researchers. It coordinates Circostrada and has a permanent seat on its Steering Committee. ARTCENA works towards its missions in three main areas: sharing of knowledge and resources through a digital platform; supporting professionals via mentoring and training; promoting and strengthening the circus, street arts and theatre fields by carrying out international development projects.

ISACS

The Irish Street Art, Circus and Spectacle Network – ISACS – is Ireland’s leading support and advocacy organisation for the development of street arts, circus and spectacle art forms. Created in 2010, ISACS mission is to celebrate these artforms, advocate for the policy and practical changes that will allow them to flourish in Ireland, grow their membership and sustain their organisation. The values that underpin and inform ISACS work are:

- Care - ISACS values nurturing relationships, supporting their membership across a range of issues and strive for a genuinely inclusive community which connects and cares for each other and the development of the artforms.
- Ambition - ISACS lauds ambitious actions and thinking, growing determined, proud, confident and resilient behaviour across and between their membership.
- Encouragement - ISACS endeavours to encourage and empower their members in their journeys, their professional development and their creativity.
- Integrity - ISACS are honest, trustworthy, and open with their members, board, team, partners, and funders/stakeholders.
