

L'ART RUE is recruiting

L'Art Rue is an association that uses the Art vector as a tool for dialogue and social and human development. Settled in the heart of the medina of Tunis, in the Kotteb Louzir neighborhood, L'Art Rue develops different programs where art and social link are closely connected:

Artistic residencies / Dream City Festival / Art and Education.

In this context, the L'Art Rue association is recruiting:

A Head of Communication

Directly attached to the association's management, he or she is responsible for:

- Developing and applying the comprehensive communication strategy in line with L'Art Rue's vision and specific projects,
- Coordinating the conduct of communication campaigns,
- Managing the communication department.

PROFILE

A higher education graduate: A degree in communication (Bac +5)

Experience in a similar post is required

SKILLS REQUIRED

- Excellent knowledge of communication providers' management (communication agencies, media, printing companies...),
- Intercultural management skills,
- An ambitious and strategic vision,
- Fluency in written and spoken French, Arabic and English, the basis of day-to-day work,
- Mastering the graphic chain, tools and different steps linked to the edition of print and web formats,
- Good investigation and technological, thematic or artistic monitoring capacities in order to be a source of innovative proposals,

Job TYPE: A full-time fixed-term contract until July 2020

MONTHLY SALARY: Based on experience

Applications should be sent before June the 15th 2018, mentioning the reference RE/COM/2018 to recrutement.lartrue@gmail.com.